Eat Out Night Update: Thank you to all that were able to participate in our dine out nights in February! Our Chipotle Night was a success with earning $192.06, which is amazing considering this was the night that the snow started at 3pm and most of our area got 9 inches of snow! We also have a good turn out for Cane's but the final numbers are not in yet. Due to the impact of the snow both restaurants are allowing us to have a second fundraiser night to boost our earnings. Raising Cane's will be in March (see below for more information), and Chipotle will be in May, at the Buttermilk Pike location (more details will be posted in May).
