FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Thank you for your commitment to our students' spiritual growth. As we near the end of our Lenten season, we welcome parents to join us for Holy Week presentations of the Stations of the Cross and Passion Play. Students have worked hard to make these performances memorable and prayerful.

BIG BLUE BASH UPDATES:

Thank You: Thank you to everyone for making the Big Blue Bash a great success, especially to Be Creative Catering for the delicious food/drink, all our Big Blue Bash Committee members for volunteering, and all that joined in the event.

Teacher Wishlists: Did you get a chance to look at the teacher's wishlists? This is an easy way to support our teachers with donations that go directly to them for their use in each classroom. You can still make a donation to a teacher's classroom. The teacher wish lists are available on the Big Blue Bash website until Monday, April 11, 2022. Click here for purchases/donations.

Out of Uniform Passes and Bring Your Stuffie Passes can be used on Monday, April 25th - our first day back from spring break. These passes are available for purchase on the Big Blue Bash website until Monday, April 11, 2022. Click here for purchases/donations.

Raffle and Silent Auction Winners: Congratulations to all of your raffle winners including our Cash, Cash, Cash Winner-Susie Benzinger! Do you still need to pick up your silent auction winnings? All silent auction winners that have a certificate will be sent home through Kid Mail. If you have a physical item – they can be picked up in the school office during the school day (7:15-3:15 p.m.). If you need to make alternative arrangements, just let us know at saintagnesschoolPTO@gmail.com.

COMMUNITY NEWS
