

2nd Grade Summer Reading

Hello Incoming 2nd Graders!

We want to make sure that you are reading during the summer! We would like for you to read the book listed below and answer the questions that go with it. You can read the book by yourself or with an adult. Please bring the questions at the beginning of the school year and give them to your 2nd grade teacher. There is also an optional writing assignment listed. We would love to hear from you over the summer. It's also a great chance for you to practice your handwriting. We hope you have a great summer!

This is the assigned book. Completing the questions are a requirement:

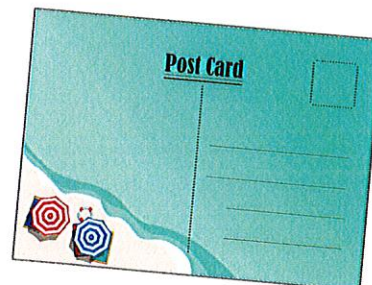

Nate The Great #1

- AR Level: 2.0
- AR Points: 0.5

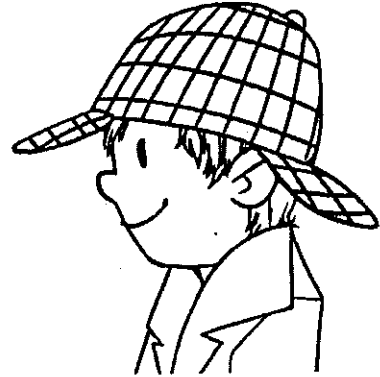

Optional writing assignment: If you go on vacation this summer, please consider sending a postcard from your destination to your future classmates. Write about something you did on your vacation. Please use your best handwriting. You can mail it to school, and we will share it the first week you are back in second grade.
